

COMPLAINTS RESOLUTION AND APPEALS POLICY

We hope that all students will be happy with the program and services at IELI. If you have a question or problem, IELI believes that good communication is very important.

Making a Complaint

Following the steps below will help you communicate any concerns you have with IELI. You are welcome to bring a support person and/or translator to help you at any point in this process.

Step 1: Informal Communication

In most situations, the issue can be resolved by discussing it informally. If we cannot meet your request, we will explain the procedures and policies which apply.

If you have a question or concern about something in class, including but not limited to, issues with the teachers, course content, other students, or assessments, you should talk to your teacher first. Your teacher will try to address your concern.

If you are not comfortable speaking to your teacher or are not satisfied with their response, you should make an appointment to speak to the campus Director of Studies. You can make an appointment at the front desk.

Step 2: Formal Complaints Process

Students can use the Formal Complaints Process if they are not happy with IELI's decision.

You should write an email explaining what the problem is and what you want IELI to do. You should also include any documents which help explain your side of the problem.

- For complaints relating to enrolments, complaints should be emailed to the Admissions and Compliance Coordinator at ieliadmissions@flinders.edu.au.
- For complaints relating to academic issues or classes, complaints should be emailed to the Director of Studies at mark.bollinger@flinders.edu.au (for the Flinders campus) or sjgigger@ieli.sa.edu.au (for the city campus).
- For complaints relating student services or student activities, complaints should be emailed to the Student Services and Welfare Manager at michaela.nelson@flinders.edu.au.

The relevant person will study the problem carefully and provide a written decision or response to your complaint within 10 business days.

You should explain what the problem is, what you want IELI to do and why you are not satisfied with the original decision. You should also include any documents which help explain your side of the problem.

The IELI Director will consider the issue carefully and provide a written response within 10 business days.

External Appeals Process

If students are not satisfied with the outcome of an internal appeal, they have the right to make an external appeal within 20 days.

Students can make external appeals to:
